Properties available From 1 July. Big Blue Lettings are delighted to present this massive big and imposing student house on probably the most sought after road in Hyde Park. Ash Grove connects Victoria Road with Brudenell Road, and is therefore extremely close to all the shop and pubs, it's also around the corner from the park and only a short walk from Leeds univeristy. The house itself has over four floors, seven double bedrooms, a big dining kitchen and living room, two bathrooms, 2 shower rooms and loads of space for storage. There is also a front and back garden and the property is provided with all the essential appliances, including a washing machine, dryer and a dishwasher. It's an incredible option for a large group of students going into their second year.
